

Grade 1 Newsletter!

January 30, 2012

Catholic Schools Week!! Thursday is also the 100th day of school. Your child needs to bring in 100 of the same things (example: 100 paperclips, skittles, marbles, rocks, etc. Be creative!) Some students still need a notebook for journaling.

Monday: Pajama Day

Tuesday: Wacky hair/Mismatched Clothes. Bring a game to play with faith friends!

Wednesday: UNIFORM! Mass with the Bishop and neighboring Catholic schools

Thursday: Sports Day

Friday: Color Day—Purple for our class. TALENT SHOW!

MATH: We will be in school for 100 days on Thursday! We'll do fun activities with the number 100.

RELIGION: We will spend time with faith friends, do a community service, and have Mass with the Bishop and fellow schools. There is also Adoration on Friday.

READING: Our story this week is The Doorbell Rang. Our skills we'll work on this week are compare and contrast, short a words, and writing clear sentences.

LANGUAGE ARTS: Students will work on their phonemic awareness with the short u vowel sound. We will begin journaling this week.

SPELLING: Our spelling test on Friday will be on the following words from our story: can, band, hand, back, bag, bad, that, ask

Challenge words: handle, apple, candle

SOCIAL STUDIES & SCIENCE: The extracurricular activities for Catholic Schools Week will be during this time. We'll attend the 5th grade Wax Museum and reinforce the importance of community service and being a good citizen. If time allows, we'll talk more about weather from last week.
