

Grade 1 Newsletter!

October 31, 2011

Thank you to the parent volunteers for their help at the Gables Nursing Home. I will be collecting reading logs for October tomorrow. Here's a peek at our week:

MATH: Students will be working on double addition facts, identifying a rectangle, and creating/reading a repeating pattern.

RELIGION: We have Mass on Tuesday this week. Father Jim is visiting our class on Wednesday afternoon. We will talk about the great commandment and praying to God.

READING: I will be assessing the students this week on our past themes and skills, such as classifying, drawing conclusions, sequence, final consonants, and high frequency words.

LANGUAGE ARTS: Students will be working on their phonemic awareness of the consonants p, qu, v.

SPELLING: Our spelling test on Friday will be a review from the last three weeks: you, came, will, am, then, out, said, put, for
There are no challenge words this week.

SOCIAL STUDIES: We'll continue our unit on communities, expanding it to our world, water and land. We'll work on map skills.

SCIENCE: We will begin our unit on Animals.
